Monaco Yacht Show 2017 Kicks Off

By Red Marine | 27th September 2017

The Monaco Yacht Show 2017 has opened its doors today, with an array of new yachts debuting including Oceanco’s Jubilee and the new 111-metre AMELS Full Custom project ‘YULU’. This year’s show runs from September 27th to 30th.

Burgess Yachts brought the new 111m Jubilee by Oceanco, the largest yacht from The Netherlands and the largest to ever grace Monaco Yacht Show. The vessel became an instant star by winning both the MYS Exterior Design Award and also winner of the MYS Novel Superyacht Award 2017.

Maine/whale, Amels have previewed their 111m full custom project Pelorus that was presented by Jenny Hoefnagel of HQ Yacht Design & AMELS Design Manager Hans Konings.

Heesen Yachts brought M/Y HOME which happens to be the world’s first Fast Displacement with hybrid propulsion. For that, she won the MYS RNA Green Award 2017. Also a winner at the show was M/Y Seven Sins by San Lorenzo which scooped the MYS Interior Award 2017.

Other yachts attending include the White Dream by Princess Yachts, Horizon YD 80 by US based Horizon Yacht, the magnificent L Niva, Cosma Explorer by Fincantieri, the Majesty 125 by Gulf Craft Aurora Yachts, Nydia by French based Coach Yachts and Monako based GiYachts.

There are no comments

Your email address will not be published. Required fields are marked *

Comment

Name *
Email *
Website

Post Comment