Construction of Tankoa Mega Yacht S701 and Superyacht S501 well underway

December 01, 2015

Construction of the two all-new Tankoa vessels, mega yacht S701 and superyacht S501, is well underway. Even if not sold yet, the impressive 71m motor yacht S701 is taking shape, and the last section of the transom in stainless steel is currently being welded.

Works on the 50-metre luxury yacht S501, due to be delivered in April 2017, are also in full swing. A significant milestone has been recently reached, with the hull, deck and superstructure, all in aluminium, completed and moved from Marina di Carrara to enter the completion shed in Genoa on November 20, 2015. Engines and generators are already in and fairing is expected to begin this month. The interiors have been approved by the owner and production of all the cabins will start before the end of the year.
