Tankoa Yachts has announced the sale of its second 70 metre hull, S701. Francesco Paszkowski styled her exterior, whilst Studio Ruggiero is responsible for the naval architecture. The superyacht is due for delivery in early 2018.

Tankoa S701 is an open space designed to fit all the owners desires. Thanks to her length, the yacht welcomes all the top luxury amenities. The large life areas are extended from inside to outside in order for you to live an experience with no boundaries.

The superyachts's key features include an oversized beach club with bar and saloon along with two dedicated areas for the sauna and hammam with exclusive sea view and private balconies; dining area and alfresco bar and saloon with wind screen making this area suitable for every kind of season; touch and go heli-pad convertible into an outdoor "ready to party" dance floor; a big seized gym and massage area on this deck with full windows sea view; a 360° full sun deck open sky space to enjoy the real sea environment with dedicated sun beds and sofas and almost 100mq with a 180° panoramic sea view enriching this luxurious space with a private studio, jacuzzi and terrace with sun beds to maximize wellness on board.

Michel Karsenti, sales and marketing director of Tankoa says:

“ Our aim is not to compete with our Italian colleagues, it is to compete with Northern European shipyards ”

“ There is a highly tangible reason why our price is higher. But our Italian business model and regulations mean that we will be more ”

Tankoa Yachts and its global sales and marketing agent, Yacht-Ology, have recently announced that 69.3m superyacht Suerte will make her American debut at the next Fort Lauderdale International Boat Show 2016, in partnership with the official broker Northrop&Johnson.
